

Emails

Dear Vlad,

Thank you for reaching out and introducing LaLingua. I'm thrilled to hear about your language tutoring platform and the potential for collaboration. Language learning is a key area of interest for us, and I believe there could be excellent synergy between our companies.

I would be delighted to schedule a call to discuss the partnership possibilities further. I suggest having a brief introductory call to understand each other's offerings and explore how we can complement each other's services. Please let me know your availability for a call next week, and I will arrange a suitable time.

Looking forward to our conversation.

Best regards,

Jolanda